GENESIS

The revival of retro style elements breathes personality into this commercial building.

Architects | Barrie Ho Architecture Interiors
Interior design | Stefano Tordiglione Design
Address | 33-35 Wong Chuk Hang Road, Hong Kong, China
Client | Genesis
Gross floor area | 22,297 m²
Completion | 2015

Genesis is an office and commercial building spread across 22 floors, with 18 floors of offices, and four floors of retail shops. The dynamic space offers a wide range of additional functional areas, including a canteen, gym and sports facilities, a children's play room, a large open terrace, recreational space and shower facilities. Zone DD also hosts seminars, corporate training days, cocktail receptions, product launches, art showcases, and other events. In addition, an air-conditioned vertical gallery is also being planned that will allow tenants to display artwork for the enjoyment of other tenants and the public. Genesis is the first industrial building in Wong Chuk Hang that has been transformed into a commercial building.
